

“Il Rosso” red igt Toscana vintage 2012

The vineyard are situated on the hills (300 m) of the valley of river Arno, between Arezzo and Firenze.

The wine is obtained from Sangiovese grapes (75 %), plus other local varieties like canaiolo and ciliegiolo and a small part of white grapes (trebbiano and malvasia)

The wine making is simple and traditional, with short fermentation and repeated pumping over the must, and the maturation is in steel tanks. The wine is bottled after six months from the harvest.

As the other farm's products, this wine is organic, certificated by Icea.

We produced about 3000 bottles of 2012 vintage.

It is a young, fresh and slightly tannic; it is good with everyday cooking.
